

Contested Lands: Canadiana at 150

Exhibition

May 28 – June 30

Mon-Thurs, 10am – 5pm

Free of charge and open to all.

Canada has earned a global reputation for being an inclusive, multicultural nation that honours the voices, faces, and spaces that have shaped our country's identity. But what voices are silenced in this narrative, and whose faces have been hidden in the process of constructing our nationality? Join the conversation at our exhibition opening and via our live Twitter discussion.

We are proud to partner with the Association of Canadian College and University Teachers of English (ACCUTE).

Location

Modern Literature and Culture (MLC) Research
Centre, MLC Gallery (Ground floor)
111 Gerrard Street East
Toronto, ON

Opening Reception

Sunday, May 28 | 1:45 – 3:15pm

Twitter Discussion

May 23 and 30 | 12:30 – 2pm

RSVP admin@mlc.ryerson.ca |
Media Queries: media@mlc.ryerson.ca

416-979-5000 ext. 7668

mlc.ryerson.ca

@MLC\_Research

MLCRC